

Reforms in Ukraine: drivers and impediments

Public opinion and expert opinion

Iryna Bekeshkina

Ilko Kucheriv Democratic Initiative Foundation

The European Union and Ukraine:
How to enhance the cooperation and maintain the reform process?

Berlin, 8th June

5 the most successful reforms: opinion of the RPR experts

- Electronic Public Procurement System«ProZorro»
- Electronic declarations of income and property of officials
- Creation of National Police
- New anti-corruption bodies
- Decentralization

Assessment of reforms

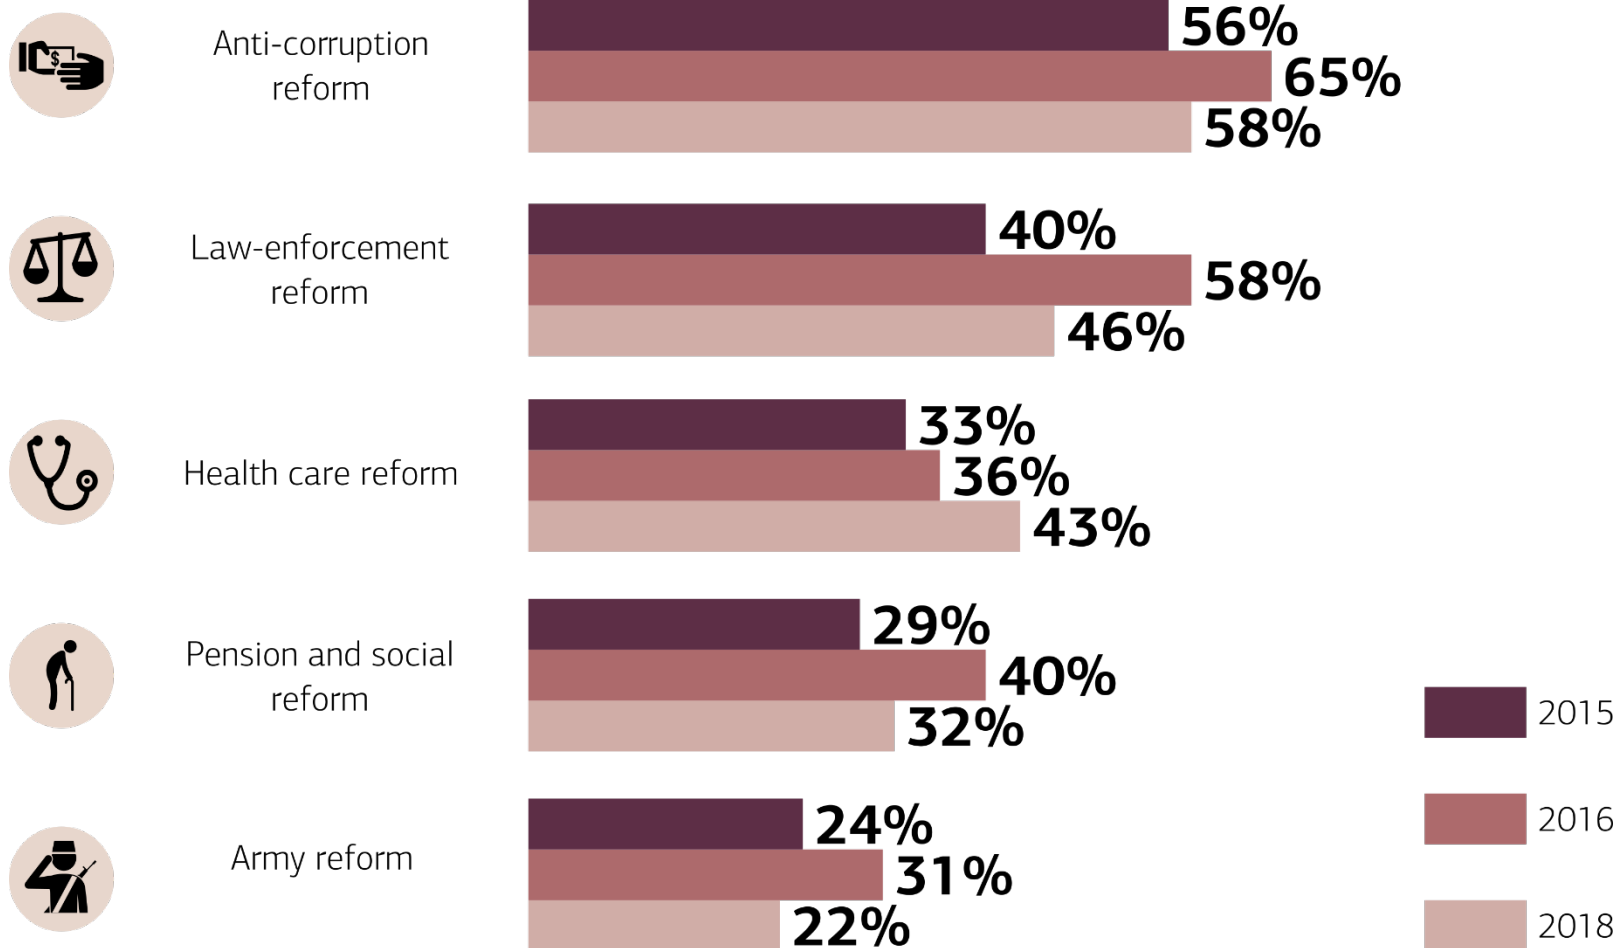

56% of the population do not see any successful reform in Ukraine

Experts -
2.52
(on a 5-point scale)

Relatively successful:
Decentralization
Army reform
Pension reform
Educational reform

Fighting corruption population constantly consider as a reform №1

Citizens do not see success in implementing the main reform - anti-corruption

Only 9% of the population consider the anti-corruption reform in Ukraine to be successful

83% do not consider the fight against corruption successful, 50% of them consider it to be a failure

5 major reform drivers

Cabinet

31%

Population

25%

Non-governmental organizations, volunteers

25%

Western countries

25%

International Monetary Fund

24%

President

24%

5 major reform obstacles

Bureaucracy, civil servants

39%

Oligarchs

39%

Cabinet

31%

President

26%

Political forces in the coalition

17%

Citizens do not trust the formation of an anti-corruption court by state institutions

Anticorruption Court: who should be included into the competition commission?

Anticorruption NGOs - 47%

Western experts - 38%

Deputies - 13%

Judges - 9%

Representatives of the President - 5%

What to do next? To work together!

- To unite efforts of reforms drivers - in power, civil society, business, media
- If necessary, put pressure on the government and parliament through joint efforts of Western partners and civil society
- Fight with populism
- Help the government establish communication with citizens